Agreement to Participate in Recovery Residence Program with Building Men for Life, Inc.

I, _____ (print name), understand and agree that this agreement requires me to enter a recovery program from drug and/or alcohol abuse with Building Men for Life, Inc. (BMFL), a Michigan nonprofit corporation. BMFL is a member of the Michigan Association of Recovery Residences, and the National Association of Recovery Residences, and operates several recovery residences in southwestern Michigan. This agreement does not constitute a landlord-tenant or sublease relationship and Participant agrees to waive any claim, right or demand he would be entitled to if under any such relationship. The recovery program does provide Participant with a nonexclusive right to occupy a bedroom space with other members of the recovery program, provided Participant is in full compliance with all program rules and requirements as they may be amended from time-to-time, including but not limited to the requirement to pay all program fees in a timely manner. In the event Participant is expelled from the recovery program for any reason, he agrees to immediately remove himself and any personal property from the bedroom space and authorizes BMFL to immediately remove him and any personal property from the house.

In the event Participant refuses to leave the bedroom space and/or the house after having been terminated from the program by BMFL for any reason, including but not limited to the failure of Participant to pay program fees in a timely manner, Participant agrees that he may be removed from the bedroom space and the house by BMFL or the police and that Participant may be arrested for violation of MCLA 750.552 (criminal trespass).

Participant's Initials _____

Participant understands and agrees that BMFL operates Recovery Residences, which have a zero-tolerance policy for use and or consumption of alcohol or drugs, and that he may be immediately expelled from the program if the Participant chooses to use or consume alcohol or drugs. Participant agrees that the program of recovery residences, to be successful, requires all program participants to comply with the program's rules and regulations. Participant agrees to be drug tested at any time by BMFL representatives, with or without cause, and that Participant may be expelled from the program and must remove himself from the bedroom space and house upon failure of, or refusal to submit to, a drug test or potable breathalyzer test, (P.B.T.) alcohol breath sample test.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in the event BMFL brings an action for eviction of Participant from the bedroom space and house pursuant to MCLA 600.5701 et. seq. or a complaint for nonpayment of program fees, Participant agrees to pay to BMFL its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including but not limited to appeal or post-judgment collection actions.

Participant acknowledges having received and having read a current copy of BMFL program rules and regulations, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference. Participant agrees to abide by all such program rules and regulations, as they may be amended from time-to-time.

Participant acknowledges having received and completed a current copy of BMFL's program application, incorporated herein by reference. Participant agrees that any false or misleading information supplied by participant in the application shall constitute grounds for immediate termination from the program by BMFL.

Participant has read, or alternately has had this agreement read to him, and understands everything written above and agrees thereto.

Program Fees and Expenses

A minimum nonrefundable fee of $175.00 is required to move in. If you do not choose to stay the $175.00 is not refunded.

All Program fees are PRE-PAID. You pay for the weeks and month in advance.

Building Men for Life will offer a few different options for payment.

- A) Monthly fee: All program fees paid by the first Sunday of each month is $650.00 and will cover to the following month's first Sunday. A BMFL month is always first Sunday to First Sunday of each month.
- A) Weekly fee: The weekly fee is $175.00 per week due every Sunday. A week is considered Sunday to Saturday, if any day of the week is used you will be billed for the entire week.
- B) Day Rate: The day rate is set at $25.00 per day.
- C) All rates are subject to change with a 30-day notice.
- D) You are required to choose a payment plan on the first Sunday of each month and cannot change the plan unless it is on the first Sunday of each month.

A $20.00 house fee is paid to the house manager or coordinator the first week of every month to buy house supplies such as toilet paper and cleaning supplies. All receipts for expenditures out of the house fund will be posted in the common area.

Building Men for Life, Inc. Sober Living House Application

Refund Policy

Refunds will be paid based on the payment plan you have chosen to pay your fees.

- A) Monthly payment plan refunds are paid on any unused weeks in the month. Used weeks will be billed weekly at $175.00 rate.
- B) Weekly payment plan refunds are based on the day rate of $25.00 per day.

State Funding

New participants who are actively engaged in outpatient drug treatment may qualify for free housing with Building Men for Life for 30-60 days depending on participation. To maintain funding a few things are required.

- A) You must be home every day to sleep.
- B) You must follow house curfews
- C) You must sign in and out of the house when you come and go.
- D) You must provide proof of outpatient attendance.

If at any point you drop out of outpatient treatment or do not return home for a night, the funding is terminated, and you will be required to start paying the program fees.

If you do not sign in and out of the home a fee of $25.00 per day will be charged for each day missed.

Participants on any State funding will be required to live in a phase 1 home. Phase 2 homes do not qualify for State Funding.

To qualify for Funding, you must be from Ottawa, Allegan or Muskegon County and have had a residence in that County for over 60 days. Most of the Counties require you to be on Medicaid in their County and actively enrolled and participating in outpatient drug treatment.

Past Due and late fees

A late fee of $5.00 per week is applied to all past due balances.

Participants who fall at or above $350.00 past due must move out immediately unless a weekly payment plan of $200.00 per week is agreed upon with BMFL staff in advance until you are caught up.

Anyone over $500.00 past due will be asked to leave, no exceptions.

To re-enter the program after you leave all past due program fees must be paid in full with one week in advance.

Building Men for Life, Inc. Program Participant Waiver of Liability

All program participants must have a completed "Program Participant Waiver of Liability" on file with Building Men for Life. This waiver helps to keep our fees as low as possible and ensures that all participants fully understand the nature of Building Men for Life housing.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY; THIS DOCUMENT AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS!

The Release and Waiver of Liability executed on this date by (print name) _____ ("Participant") in favor of Building Men for Life, Inc., a nonprofit corporation, its directors, officers, employees and agents (collectively "BMFL").

The Participant desires to engage in the Building Men for Life Program which includes program-based residence in a recovery residence provided and operated by BMFL.

In consideration of participation in the Program, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Participant hereby freely, voluntarily and without duress, executes this Release under the following terms:

- 1. RELEASE AND WAIVER: Participant does hereby release and forever discharge and hold harmless BMFL, its' successors and assigns from any and all liability, claims and demands of whatever kind or nature, whether in law or in equity, which arise or may hereafter arise by virtue of Participant's residence in a BMFL home and engagement in activities that are a part of the BMFL program.

Participant understands that this release discharges BMFL from any liability or claim that the Participant may have against BMFL with respect to any bodily injury, personal injury, illness, death or property damage that may result from Participant's relationship with BMFL and Participant's residing in a BMFL home, whether caused by negligence of BMFL or its officers, directors, employees, agents or otherwise. Participant also understands that BMFL does not assume any responsibility for or obligation to provide financial assistance, including but not limited to medical, health, or disability insurance in the event of injury or illness.

- 2. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS: Participant understands and agrees that:
 - a. He will only do work he feels comfortable doing and his skill level can do without injury to himself or others. He will not hold the landlord and/or homeowner liable for expenses related to injury because of work done on any of the Building Men for Life, Inc. rental properties. He understands any work project or alteration to a home must be approved by the landlord, the Housing Director, or Executive Director. Inspection by a licensed installer of new installations will be the responsibility of the landlord if he/she feels necessary.
 - b. That BMFL housing is provided to facilitate a lifestyle that is free from drugs, alcohol, crime and other subjects of addiction; that the introduction of addictive materials, intoxicated individuals, violence or criminality into a recovery residence poses a severe threat to the health and well-being of other residents ; and that Participant will be removed from the BMFL Program and BMFL Housing if it is determined that he is engaged in activities that pose a threat to the health and well-being of other program participants; and c. That, by signing this agreement, Participant acknowledges the understanding that he will be immediately removed from the BMFL Program and BMFL Housing upon finding that he has engaged in any form of substance abuse or any other activity that threatens the health, well-being and quiet enjoyment of fellow BMFL Program participants.

3. GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE: Participant expressly agrees that this Release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the laws of the State of Michigan and that this Release shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan. Venue for any action brought by the undersigned against BMFL shall be in Ottawa County, Michigan.

Drug/Alcohol Use, Testing Policy & Agreement

The primary purpose of Building Men for Life, Inc. (BMFL) is to give our men a home environment that is ideally suited for successful recovery. When a participant chooses to use drugs and/or alcohol, he threatens the recovery of everybody in his home.

The number one rule for BMFL participants is: No one may use alcohol and/or drugs, including the misuse of prescribed or over-the-counter drugs, and ALL mind-altering substances, whether legal or illegal, while in the program. The use of marijuana is strictly prohibited, even if a participant has a prescription. As such, we have a zero-tolerance policy for drug and alcohol use and any participant who violates this policy will be immediately removed from the program.

Participants who are over-medicated on prescription drugs or are prescribed a type or level of drug, which makes it unsafe for him to live in the house, may be removed from the program.

Participants who take medication(s) that are meant to substitute for their alcohol or drug addiction, medication assisted therapy (MAT), such as Methadone and Suboxone, will require the written consent of the Housing Director or Executive Director before entering the BMFL program. An applicant on MAT must sign a release allowing BMFL staff to talk to the prescribing physician regarding the treatment.

Upon entering the BMFL program, new participants will be required to undergo a drug screen. To be approved for entry into our program, this test must show a "negative" result for all drugs that are not prescribed by a physician.

Participants are subject to drug and alcohol testing at any time and for any reason. Once informed that an alcohol and/or drug test will be administered, participants must stay within the staff member's sight and follow all directions and instructions given.

Any participant who refuses to submit to a drug and/or alcohol test; receives an adulterated or substituted drug test result or has a positive test result will be immediately removed from the BMFL program. In addition, any participant who does not fully cooperate or follow directions in any way during the testing process, will be considered a refusal and his probation/parole agent will be notified.

By signing this form, I agree to follow the Alcohol/Drug Use and Testing Policy. I understand that if I refuse to submit to a drug and/or alcohol test; have an adulterated or substituted drug test result, do not follow the directions or instructions for testing, or have a positive test result, I will be expelled from the Building Men for Life program immediately.

Rights of Recipients of Substance Abuse Services 1978 Public Act 368 and Promulgated Rules

Recipient Rights Generally,

1. A recipient shall not be denied appropriate service on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, mental or physical handicap, marital status, sexual preference, or political beliefs.
2. The admission of a recipient to a treatment program or receipt of prevention services shall not result in the recipient being deprived of any rights, privileges, or benefits which are guaranteed to individuals by state or federal law or by the state or federal constitutions.
3. A recipient may present grievances or suggest changes in program policies and services to the program staff, to governmental officials, or to another person within or outside the program. In this process, the program shall not in any way restrain the recipient.
4. A recipient has the right to review, copy, or receive a summary of his or her program records, unless, in the judgment of the program director, such action will be detrimental to the recipient or to others for either of the following reasons:
 - a. Granting the request for disclosure will cause substantial harm to the relationship between the recipient and the program or to the program's capacity to provide services in general.
 - b. Granting the request for disclosure will cause substantial harm to the recipient. If the program director determines that such action will be detrimental, the recipient is allowed to review nondetrimental portions of the record or a summary of the nondetrimental portions of the record. If a recipient is denied the right to review all or part of his or her record, the reason for the denial shall be stated to the recipient. An explanation of what portions of the record are detrimental and for what reasons, shall be stated in the client record and shall be signed by the program director.
5. A program staff member shall not physically or mentally abuse or neglect or sexually abuse a recipient.
6. A recipient has the right to review a written fee schedule in programs where recipients are charged for services. Policies on fees and any revisions thereto shall be approved by the governing authority of the program and shall be recorded in the administrative record of the program.
7. A recipient is entitled to receive an explanation of his or her bill, regardless of the source of payment.
8. A recipient has the right to information concerning any experimental or research procedure proposed as a part of his or her treatment or prevention services and has the right to refuse to participate in the experiment or research without jeopardizing his or her continuing services. A program shall comply with state and federal rules and regulations concerning research which involves human subjects.

Treatment Programs; Specific Rights; Fingerprints

1. A recipient shall participate in the development of his or her treatment plan.
2. A recipient has the right to refuse treatment and to be informed of the consequences of that refusal. When a refusal of treatment prevents a program from providing services per ethical and professional standards, the relationship with the recipient may be terminated upon reasonable notice.
3. A recipient shall be informed if a program has a policy for discharging recipients who fail to comply with program rules and shall receive, at admission and thereafter upon request, a notification form that includes written procedures which explain all the following:
 - a. The types of infractions that can lead to discharge.
 - b. Who has the authority to discharge recipients.
 - c. How and in what situations prior notification is to be given to the recipient who is being considered for discharge.

Building Men for Life, Inc. Sober Living House Application

- d. The mechanism for review or appeal of a discharge decision. A copy of the notification form signed by the recipient shall be maintained in the recipient's case file.
- 4. A recipient shall have the benefits, side effects, and risks associated with the use of any drugs fully explained in language which is understood by the recipient.
- 5. A recipient has the right to give prior informed consent, consistent with federal confidentiality regulations, for the use and future disposition of products of special observation and audiovisual techniques, such as 1-way vision mirrors, tape recorders, television, movies, or photographs.
- 6. Fingerprints may be taken and used in connection with treatment or research or to determine the name of a recipient only if expressed written consent has been obtained from the recipient. Fingerprints shall be kept as a separate part of the recipient's records and shall be destroyed or returned to the recipient when the fingerprints are no longer essential to treatment or research.

Inpatient and Residential Programs; Specific Rights

- 1. A recipient has the right to associate and have private communications and consultations with his or her physician and attorney.
- 2. A program shall post its policy concerning visitors in a public place.
- 3. Unless contraindicated by program policy or individual treatment plan, a recipient is allowed visits from family members, friends, and other persons of his or her choice at reasonable times, as determined by the program director or according to posted visitors' hours. A recipient shall be informed in writing of visitors' hours upon admission to the program.
- 4. To protect the privacy of all other recipients, a program director shall ensure, to the extent reasonable and possible, that the visitors of recipients will only see or have contact with the individual they have reason to visit.
- 5. A recipient has the right to be free from physical and chemical restraints, except those authorized in writing by a physician for a specified and limited time. Written policies and procedures which set forth the circumstances that require the use of restraints and which designate the program personnel responsible for applying restraints shall be approved in writing by a physician and shall be adopted by the program governing authority. Restraints may be applied in an emergency to protect the recipient from injury to self or others. The restraint shall be applied by designated staff. Such action shall be reported to a physician immediately and shall be reduced to writing in the client record within 24 hours.
- 6. A recipient has the right to be free from doing work which the program would otherwise employ someone else to do, unless the work and the rationale for its therapeutic benefit are included in program policy or in the treatment plan for the recipient.
- 7. A recipient has the right to a reasonable amount of personal storage space for clothing and other personal property. All such items shall be returned upon discharge.
- 8. A recipient has the right to deposit money, earnings, or income in his or her name in an account with a commercial financial institution. A recipient has the right to get money from the account and to spend it or use it as he or she chooses, unless restricted by program policy or by the treatment plan for the recipient. A recipient has the right to receive all money or other belongings held for him or her by the program within 24 hours of discharge.
